THEY RAINED ABUSE

Carter Is Desperately Wounded and Saline Injections Were Used to Strengthen His Heart Action-A Preliminary Trial-Excitement Ran High.

Ball shot twice and probably fatally wounded Brantley Carter in a quarrel in ternoon. Both are young men and from prominent families. From eye-witnesses, George Ball, accompanied by his young er brother. Thomas, started a quarrel had its origin in Carter's having called George Ball to account for some remarks made about him several weeks ago. The trio went into a tollet room ing Carter, who was trying to adjust the grievance amicably, but failing, went out of the room, followed by the Balls. George Ball continued to apply vilo facing him and said he would no longer ing a step toward Ball.

DREW HIS REVOLVER George Ball drew his revolver, at the entering between the fifth and sixth rib, one inch to the left of the medium line, one inch to the left of the medium line, lodging in the body. The second made an ugly flesh wound on the muscle of the right arm, and he was in the act of firing the third time, when Sergeant Sands grabbed him.

Both men are traveling sulesmen, Ball representing a Danville firm, and Carter a grocery firm of Lynchburg. Carter was carried to his room on the third floor, attended by Drs. Glies, Parrish and Reynolds.

ALL ABOUT NOTHING.

No statements were made by the wounded man, except he was heard to say in a few minutes after being shot that was all about nothing. Carter is about twenty-three; George, Ball about one year his senior, and Thomas Ball four years his junior.

In the preliminary trial, the prosecution did not present its strongest witnesses, one of whom is a prominent counsty man and the other a traveling man from Lynchburg. The defense will try probably appeal to County Court, which is now in session, to ball Thomas Ball.

MUCH ENCITEMENT.

Excitement was intense at one time among traveling friends of Carter, but cooler heads provailed and all ears are now turned to the wounded man, who rallies slightly, only to grow weaker as the day closes.

This is the third shooting affray in the county in less than three weeks, brought about by similar circumstances.

Senator George T. Rison has been retained counsel for the defense.

DANVILLE, VA., Jan. 18.—The shootling appears to have grown out of a quarrel over the wife of the wounded man, whom Carter married in Washington several weeks sgo, after an elopement.
There had been had blood between them,
ond when they met to-day the trouble was reopened. It is claimed that Carter left Bull and went to his work. Bull afterwards came to the sample room can curred him. Carter said he could not stand more and told Bull he must resent it.

"If you can't take that you can this," said Ball, as he drew his revolver and shot the man twice.

Spirit of Commercialism, Mr Bryan Declares, Should be Combatted by a Firm Adherence to Principle and Awakening of the Public Conscience.

(By Associated Press.) LINCOLN, NEB., Jan. 18 .- A formal welcome to W. J. Bryan on his return from Europe, taking the form of a "dol iar dinner," was held to-night, and it was attended by nearly 700 Democrats. The dinner was intended as a testimonia of regard and sympathy with Mr. Bry an's political policies and to mark entry into active participation in the preconvention campaign. Mr. spoke on "The Moral Issue." His speech was heartly applauded.

Mr. Bryan's Speech.

Mr. Bryan sald: "Instead of talking of concessions and compromises, it is time for honest and aggressive action. We are confronted with a condition that may well alarm the thoughful and patriotic. We find corruption everywhere. Voters, are bought at so much a head, representatives in our city governments are profiting by their, positions, and even, Federal officers are selfing lighteness. What is the cause? The commortal split that puts a price on everything and resolves every question into Will 1t pay? Sinhis commercialism has given popularity to that theory of government which permits the granting of privileges to a favored few, and defends the theory by an attempt to show that the money thus given directly finds its way indirectly back into the pockets of the tax-payers." #### CONTEST FOR CONVENTION

Richmond, Norfolk and Lynchburg in the Field-Likely

The Republican State Central Commit make arrangements for the meeting of the State convention. The convention at Chicago. The number of delegates is one delegate for every one hundred votes and one for every fraction of one hun-dred in excess of fifty, cast for McKinley. On this basis, the Ninth Congressional District will get the Ilon's share of the delegation to Chicago, for that district polled the bulk of the party vote in that polled the bulk of the party vote in that campaign.

The State Committee will issue a call for a convention and name a date and place. Already several cities are after the convention. Norfolk, always energetic in such matters, is early in the field, and will spare no effort to get the convention. Lynchburg has also begun a canvass for the meeting, and Richmond is expected to put in a bid. Richmond, by reason of its location, should be able to get the body for this city, if there is an organized, aggressive fight to do so. The convention will probably be held in: May, and during the latter part of the month.

MUFFILED BELLS. with a red face and auburn hair.

It seems that the young man had pre-pared for his journey by getting an em-ploye's pass for himself and wife to Washington, but his father, knowing of pared for institute to get the state of the issuance of the pass, kept a closy watch on him. When the young man went to Clifton Forge Sunday on train No. 4, the father followed on the alert. The sister of the bride-elect was in the secret, and the door bell had been muffled and that of the telephone also. Thus the couple got away from home safe. When they reached the train, the groom's father was there first, and the couple reluctantly turned away, going in the direction of her home. Making a delour, however, they hurried back to the station and reached there just as the Richmond train puled in. Safely aboard, they knew they would be missed and guessed that a telegram would be sent to Staunton to intercept them. Both the young people were decidedly hervous, and showed it all the way to Staunton. They had almost eluded the officer, and had they taken the precaution to go into the Pullmun car, even for a few moments, all would have been well, for Conductor Tom Smith has a big heart, and did tell the officer that he had no passengers for Wushington, it being a Richmond car.

There was general regret on the train that the couple had been intercepted, but it was the unanimous opinion that they would soon get away and thwart the designs of their parsnis. The young man in the case was of age, but his bride-to-be was not, it seems, however that it was the groom's father whose vigilance resulted in the defeat of the couple's well iside.
